

105.2197-Henry L. Dickman-1926.10.22

Memorandum for Mr. Pfeiffer from Mr. Gregory

Oct. 22 1926

I went to Vineland, New Jersey, and interviewed Ex-trooper O'Donnell, who lives at 609 Wood Street. Mr. O'Donnell said he knew Dickman for years and worked with him, and that he was a rat and a snake - no name was too low to call him. He could not positively swear to anything that Dickman did, but said he was liable to do anything. He was a stool-pigeon for the boss and traveled in bad company at all times. He said that Dickman was a very close companion of another Ex-trooper, named Mannion and they were always together. Mannion was the man who was shot by Mr. Stack, Post Office Clerk, in East Orange Station when he attempted to rob the mail. He said he had no proof, but in his own mind, he was positive that Dickman was the man who was with Mannion on that night. He said if he can be of any use to us at any time, he would gladly come and do whatever he could, as he knows Dickman is a liar.
